

At Bradbury Culina, we have experience in designing innovative outdoor spaces to suit every home. Our residential designs range from small front gardens and courtyards to large outdoor entertainment areas.

- When designing residential outdoor spaces, we at Bradbury Culina aim to provide the following services:*
- ▶ Meeting with client on site to discuss their requirements that may include design style, budget, uses or plant preferences;
 - ▶ Advising on the most suitable style that will not only complement their home but also their lifestyle;
 - ▶ Site analysis and plotting of existing features that may affect the design;
 - ▶ Create the design to suit the location and the style of residence;
 - ▶ Consult with the client as many times as necessary in order to achieve the perfect design solution;
 - ▶ Preparation of a concept design and approval by client;
 - ▶ Provide explanation and advice on any aspect of the design such as materials and plants;
 - ▶ Preparation of the final design and meeting with client to discuss any unresolved aspects of the design;
 - ▶ Provide examples or information booklets with pictures, diagrams and description of all design features;

Bradbury Culina aims to not only create a unique landscape design but to create a unique landscape design that is tailored to client's every need and desire, and to provide all the necessary advice and information to insure that the design in question is successfully implemented.
